

CONSTRUCTION MAINTENANCE AND ALLIED WORKERS CANADA

NEW DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & EXTERNAL RELATIONS

The Construction, Maintenance and Allied Workers Canada (CMAW Canada) is pleased to announce that Mr. Ron Harry will be joining their organization as Director of Business Development and External Relations on August 16, 2021. Mr. Harry will partner with CMAW Canada as we strive to further offer a value-added vision within the Construction and Maintenance industry in British Columbia, Alberta, and Canada, that focuses on Unions Members, Contractors, Clients, Government, and other external groups to further the industry.

Mr. Harry brings over two decades of experience as a Senior Leader within the Construction and Maintenance Industry across Canada. He has worked for labour organizations and clients in the industry while interfacing with contractors, government, and community stakeholders for results that benefit all parties. Mr. Harry is a seasoned negotiator enabling him to understand the needs on every side of the negotiating table and ensure that sustainable agreements that benefit all parties are reached.

Mr. Harry has been involved in various capacities on some of the most significant industrial projects in Canada and the US, such as LNG Canada in British Columbia, various Oil Sands projects in Alberta, and the Pennsylvania Chemicals Project in Pennsylvania. He has also been involved in commercial and institutional construction within his career. Mr. Harry will partner with CMAW Canada to grow its portfolio by bringing his professional expertise to bear on the following areas: Business Sustainability, Business Development, Government Relations, and overall External/Stakeholder Relations.

CMAW Canada is excited that Mr. Harry has joined them and looks forward to moving CMAW Canada and the industry in British Columbia, Alberta and Canada to the point that further demonstrates we are one of the best places to invest in North America.
