- 2.04 The operation of Section 50 (2) and (3) of the Labour Relations Code is hereby excluded.

CLAUSE 3: EXTENT

3.01 Scope and Recognition

This Agreement shall apply to all employees except those excluded in the British Columbia Labour Relations Board Certification.

The law, the certification, and this Agreement are the source of rights of the Union and any employee covered by this Agreement.

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for the employees as defined in the British Columbia Labour Relations Board certification order.

3.02 No person shall solicit membership in any other labour organization, or collect dues, initiation fees, fines, or assessments for any other labour organization on company time or job site.

3.03 Union Orientation

The Union may familiarize the new employees with the Union. The shop steward or designate may spend up to 15 minutes with new employees during their first week of employment. Time spent will be considered as time worked with no loss in pay and benefits.

3.05 All employees who work over 220 hours in a 12 month period in the employment of the Employer shall, from that time forward, as a condition of employment maintain membership in good standing in the Union. All employees who have not met that threshold must be permitted in by the Union upon commencement of work. Existing Union members who meet the training and technical requirements for the job will be given preference for work over new permitted individuals.

The Employer agrees that it will not contract out such work to be performed at the jobsite that is normally done by the Employer's member employees except to employers who are signatory to this Agreement or the CMAW Standard Agreement, or employers who are signatory to an agreement with the Construction Maintenance and Allied Workers Canada.

The Employer and the Union agree to hold Union/Management meetings if requested by either party. The purpose of the meeting will be to resolve:

1. Matters concerning the appropriateness of work assignments and job descriptions.
2. Matters of mutual interest and concern.

This does not preclude any disputes being resolved under other clauses within this Collective Agreement.

The Union/Management Committee will have equal numerical representation from both parties.

The committee will consist of a minimum of two (2) members from each party.

Employees shall suffer no loss of regular earnings while in attendance at any committee meetings recognized under this Collective Agreement. Attendance at such meetings outside regular work hours will be paid at regular straight time.

An authorized business agent or designate of the Local Union shall be present at any committee meeting with the company.
